ACADEMY

The Urban Leadership Academy trains youth to become dynamic 21st-century leaders who understand their own motivation and capacity to lead, reflect the Twin Cities' growing diversity, and provide Christian service that meets your congregation's unmet service needs. Most of all, our students become more active and inspired leaders in their congregations.

ABOUT THE EVENT

At the Mini-ULA Retreat you'll experience a first-hand simulation of the two weeks of training students receive during the ULA's summer academy. Jump into the same exciting learning games and team-building and role-playing exercises that students enjoy each summer. The event is free of charge and provides your own room at a hotel and a free dinner and brunch. You'll leave fired up about the possibilities for your youth ministry. Your best youth can be among the 100 leaders we select for this summer's academy.
